

ASSAULT CASE IN WESTERLY COURT

Elisha H. Hall Guilty of Assaulting Frank T. Saunders—
White Rock to Stay in R. I.—Conn. League—Clarence
H. Robinson Wins New Jersey Bride.

The morning session of the Third district court, Judge Oliver H. Williams, was occupied in the trial of Elisha H. Hall, charged with assaulting big Frank T. Saunders, who testified that he had no idea as to his height or weight or the length of the cane he carried at the time he was assaulted.

Saunders' testimony was to the effect that he left his home in Margin street to go to the public ferry en route to North Stonington, at about four o'clock in the afternoon, Sunday, April 16, and, when opposite the Hall house, near the ferry, he was held up and assaulted by the Hall, father and son. Charles, the son of accused, according to the story of Mr. Saunders, struck him on both sides of the face, and choked him with both hands for a period of about ten minutes. The Elisha Hall struck him twice and knocked him down and the son, Charles, kicked him three times while down. When he got back on his feet, Charles kicked him several times and told him to get into the road and stay there. Saunders declared that he did not use the cane against the Halls or make any defense, and did not even speak from the beginning to the end of the affair. He said he came down by Hall's house to get to the ferry and that he was in the public highway when assaulted.

Mr. Saunders testified that Mr. Hall did not come out and ask why he (Saunders) had called him names to members of the Hall family. Saunders declared that he stood his ground and got flogged, but he would not run away. Some fifteen minutes afterward Mrs. Saunders and her daughter came down the street and accompanied him to the ferry. He declared that he never called any member of the Hall family vile names. He felt sore after the assault, but there were no visible bruises and there was no occasion for medical attendance.

Chief Brandford testified that Elisha Hall had told him that Frank Saunders had called himself and members of his family vile names, and that in order to put a stop to it he "trimmed" Saunders.

Catherine and Loretta Glides testified to seeing Elisha Hall strike and Charles Hall kick Frank Saunders.

Elisha H. Hall, the accused, admitted that he struck Saunders, but at the time Saunders had a club in his hand and was in a striking attitude. Saunders, in passing the house, used vile language and threatened Hall. He went out and took Saunders by the shoulders. Witness told his son to let go of Saunders. When he asked why the vile names were called to his family, he repeated them, declaring they were true. Saunders holding the club as if to strike. Then witness hit Saunders twice and stumbled, or lay down, for there was not force enough behind the blows to knock him down.

Mrs. Lida McGrath, daughter of Henry H. Hall, testified that she saw the fracas.

Frank Saunders, recalled, testified that he did not raise his cane to strike Hall, and did not call Hall or any member of his family any vile name on that Sunday or at any other time.

After argument for the defense by Attorney A. T. L. Ledwidge and by Town Solicitor Harry B. Agard for the state, Judge Williams adjudged Hall guilty, but suspended sentence for one week.

William Phillips was adjudged guilty of being a common drunkard and was sentenced to a term of six months in the state workhouse.

The case of John Landi, charged with assaulting Mrs. Thoren, was continued to Saturday morning.
